GSHSEB RESULTS OUT

Highest-ever pass percentage for Class XII general stream

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, MAY 9

THE CLASS XII general stream examination results of the Gujarat Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board (GSHSEB), which was announced on Thursday, recorded the highest-ever pass percentage of 91.93 – a jump of 18.66 per cent points from the 73.27 per cent registered last year. This is the highest pass percentage the Board has ever recorded when it comes to Class XII general stream exams. Among the 3,78,268 regular students who appeared for the exams held in March, 3,47,738 passed. Class XII science stream results, too, declared on Thursday, witnessed an overall pass percentage of 82.45 per cent, an increase of 16.87 per cent points from the 65.58 per cent recorded in March 2023. Among the 1,11,132 regular students who appeared for the exams, 91,625 passed. In the science stream, girls recorded a pass percentage of 82.35 per cent, slightly lower than boys at 83.53 per cent. However, in the general stream, girls outshone boys – while girls recorded a pass percentage of 94.36, the figure for boys was 89.45 per cent. GSHSEB officials cited the change in examination pattern as a major reason behind the show this year. "Earlier, each question used to come with two choices. But now, instead of specific choices for each question, candidates were given a general option," GSHSEB Vice-Chairman Dinesh Patel told The Indian Express.

According to the change in the exam pattern announced in October 2023, candidates were given a general option to choose a few questions they wanted to answer from a list of questions. Earlier, each question used to come with two choices and all had to be attempted.

Further, another key modification in objective questions, from 20 to 30 per cent. The share of descriptive questions declined from 30 to 20 per cent. In the science stream, Morbi topped among districts with a pass percentage of 92.8. Chhota Udepur, at 51.36, recorded the lowest pass percentage. Similarly, in the general stream, Botad district, with 96.4, recorded the highest pass percentage while Junagadh, at 84.81, came last among the 33 districts. However, among the Class XII general stream repeat candidates, only 49.34 per cent passed. For the science stream, the figure was 32.95 per cent. Further, the Gujarat State Open School (GSOS) exams saw a pass percentage of 54.98. At Khavda examination centre in Kutch, which recorded the lowest pass percentage, 46 among the 90 general stream students who sat for the exams at the centre, qualified.

In the general stream, among the different mediums of instructions, Urdu medium schools topped Class XII general stream with 97.62 per cent, followed by Marathi medium (94.07 per cent), English (92.8 per cent), Gujarati (91.98 per cent) and Hindi (85.84 per cent).

All subjects recorded a pass percentage of above 90 in the general stream. English (first language) recorded the highest pass percentage of 99.67, followed by Hindi (second language) at 99.46 and Sociology at 99.3. Computer Science recorded the lowest pass percentage of 90.95 per cent. However, in the science stream, among different mediums, Gujarati medium students scored the highest pass percentage of 82.94 per cent, followed by English medium at 81.92 per cent. The lowest was recorded by Hindi medium schools at 66.59 per cent. Further, general stream students secured 100 per cent in languages, including Gujarati and Hindi – both first and second language – and Urdu. On the other hand, science stream students recorded the lowest pass percentage in Physics (83.17).

Meet the Toppers

DHRUV RAVAL, SCIENCE

Dhruv secured 99.48 percentile

FOR 17-YEAR-OLD Dhruv Raval, his father's perseverance is his "biggest inspiration". "The hard work he has put in the past 25-30 years to run the house and raise us is an example for us," says Dhruv, who is the youngest of three siblings. A student of Vision School of Science in Nadiad, Dhruv is among the Class XII science toppers in the state. He secured 99.48 percentile in the HSC examination with an A1 grade as well as 99.90 per cent in GUJCET.

Dhruv's father, Nitin Raval, earns a living by driving an auto rickshaw in Nadiad town. "My older siblings – a brother, who is preparing for a Chartered Accountancy course and a sister, who has completed her Masters in Commerce – have always motivated me to follow my dreams and study well... My parents, especially mother Jyoti, always ensured that there is a conducive environment at home for us to study and succeed," Dhruv, a BTech aspirant, tells The Indian Express.

He added that he used to study for nearly 12 hours every day and stayed away from social media. "I would occasionally play cricket to refresh myself but as exams approached, it was only about revising and studying for 12 hours a day," he says.

DILIP DANTANIYA, COMMERCE

NINETEEN-YEAR-OLD Dilip Dantaniya, who secured 98.34 percentile or 89 per cent, hopes to crack the Gujarat Public Service Commission (GPSC) examination to help his family out of the existing crisis.

A resident of Shahpur area in Ahmedabad, his mother Jayshree sells utensils in exchange for old clothes, while his father Jaydhrabhai is a daily-wage labourer. The parents afforded Dilip's education with some financial help from relatives and friends. "I have three sisters and all are married. I want to help my parents by supporting them financially... My teachers told me about GPSC and guided me on its preparations. I want to work hard and crack it so that we don't face any financial crisis in the future," Dilip says.

ALOK DANTANIYA, COMMERCE

ALOK DANTANIYA, 18, aims to become a Chartered Accountant. The son of an auto mechanic, he secured 90 per cent or 98.64 percentile in Class XII Commerce without any coaching or extra classes.

The youngest among the five siblings of two brothers and three sisters, Alok says, "With the help of my school teachers, I studied for six to seven hours at home."

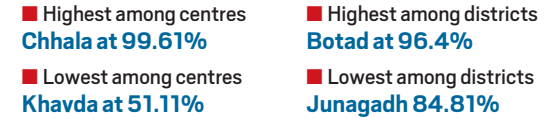

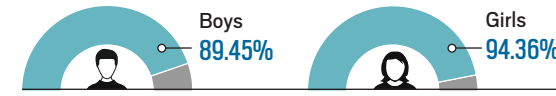

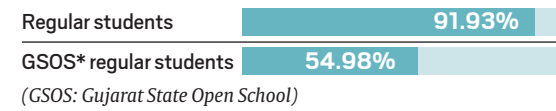

His elder brother Chirag – the only graduate in the family and employed at a private bank – says that despite being the youngest, Alok is the inspiration for everyone.
